The Parable of the Lost Son

One day, the younger son asked his father to give him a lot of the family's money so that he could leave home and go far away.

The father gave him the money.

So the younger son packed his things and went away.

He spent his money on wild parties and having a good time. Soon he had spent all the money the father had given him and he had nothing left. Now he was hungry and poor.

He got a job feeding pigs. He was so hungry he could have eaten the pigs' food.

He thought for a long time and made up his mind to go back to his father. He was going to ask his father to take him back, not as a son but as a servant.

He started the long journey home.

One day his father saw him in the distance and ran to meet him. He hugged and kissed him.

The boy was trying to say sorry, but the father quickly called his servants to get a party ready. All the father wanted to do was celebrate and welcome his son home.

The older son heard the celebrations and asked one of the servants to tell him why his father was having a party.

When the servant told him that his father was having the party for his brother, to welcome him safely home, he became very angry and refused to go into the party.

The father came out to speak to the older brother.

The older brother was angry because he had stayed at home to work in the family fields and had never wasted any of the family's money. He told his father that he had never had a party like this given for him.

Luke 15:11-32

When he returned to Capernaum, after some days, it was reported that he was at home. So many gathered around that there was no longer room for them, not even in front of the door; and he was speaking the word to them. Then some people came, bringing to him a paralysed man, carried by four of them. And when they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and after having dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

"But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on Earth to forgive sins" – he said to the paralytic – "I say to you, stand up, take your mat and go to your home." And he stood up, and immediately took the mat and went out before all of them...
